Among the Jaredita Fund recent recipients above are siblings Zenos, Joseph, Sarai, and Theresia Wijaya who are from a family of 10 children in the Bogor 1st Ward where their mother Ester serves as Primary President.

To the left are Ester and Grace from the Siregar family in the Tangerang 2nd Ward in Jakarta where their father serves as the Sunday School President.

Directors' Letter

Jaredita Foundation Inc. was organized 12 years ago after the tragic passing of Jaredita Subandriyo. In her honor, we have worked hard to share her love for education and for the people of Indonesia.

In the past 12 years, we have given hundreds of children, youth, and young adults a brighter future. Because of your help and donations, beneficiaries of the Jaredita Fund have completed their education and gone on to do amazing things.

We founded the Jaredita Foundation on the belief that outstanding people like yourself would join us in fighting poverty through education, and have been astonished at your response. The educational aid that we have given will have a lasting positive influence and will benefit the lives of many for generations to come.

The good that the Jaredita Foundation has done has been immeasurable.
